

Ji Hyun Rhim

Ji Hyun earned her J.D. in 2020 from Cornell Law School and her B.A. in International Studies from Waseda University. While attending law school, she served as a notes editor for the Cornell International Law Journal. Ji Hyun also gained extensive clinical experience representing international death row clients and various indigent clients in both civil and criminal cases in the United States.

Prior to joining Brune Law, Ji Hyun interned for the New York Attorney General's Office and an international law firm.

She is fluent in Korean.

Education

Cornell Law School, J.D., 2020

Waseda University, B.A., International Liberal Studies, 2014