

Susan Brune Speaks at PLI's Hedge and Private Fund Enforcement & Regulatory Developments 2016 Seminar

December 1, 2016 | Practising Law Institute

Susan Brune spoke at the Practising Law Institute about enforcement and regulatory developments relevant to hedge funds and private equity funds. Susan addressed issues related to the representation of multiple clients in a single proceeding, and what to do when developments trigger the need for separate counsel later in the representation. Other speakers included in-house counsel, attorneys from the SEC, and criminal prosecutors.
