

Susan Brune Participates in Practising Law Institute's Ethics for Corporate Lawyers: Multijurisdictional Practice and Other Current Issues 2024

March 11, 2024 | Practising Law Institute

Susan Brune was a member of the Practising Law Institute's Ethics for Corporate Lawyers: Multijurisdictional Practice and Other Current Issues 2024 panel. The panel discussed common ethical pitfalls arising out of multijurisdictional practice along with related ethical issues that corporate lawyers often face. The faculty also addressed how jurisdictional distinctions regarding an ethics matter can prompt changes in the way counsel approaches that same matter, depending on where he or she practices.
