

Internal Investigations

We conduct internal investigations, in support of the work of board committees and for companies. Recent investigations have included allegations of accounting irregularities and other sensitive matters.